

Name: _____ Hour: _____

Crash Course U.S. History #40: The 1960s - <https://nerdfighteria.info/v/lkXFb1sMa38/>

Overview: The 1960s saw people organizing and actively working for change, including things like

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

But by the end of the 1960s, the movement which seemed to overshadow all the rest was the...

5. _____

Major Events & Personalities of the Civil Rights Movement (briefly explain each in your own words)

6. Greensboro "Sit-In" (Woolworths):

7. Freedom Rides:

8. James Meredith:

9. Birmingham, Alabama / Bull Connor:

10. The Impact of Television:

11. MLK's "Letter From Birmingham Jail" (you don't have to write anything for this one, but we're going to read it later this week so I figured it deserved a spot on the outline)

12. The March on Washington (1963):

13. What were some things MLK and others advocated for in addition to basic racial equality?

14. The Civil Rights Act (1964):

15. "enfranchisement" (define):

16. Freedom Summer / March in Selma:

17. The Voting Rights Act (1965):

18. The Hart-Celler Act (1965):

The Great Society

19. The Great Society (brief explanation / definition):
20. What approach did President Lyndon B. Johnson (LBJ) take towards poverty which was different from most?
21. The Great Society (1960s) & the New Deal (1930s)
22. According to Eric Foner, what was one accomplishment of LBJ's "Great Society"?
23. According to Eric Foner, what was one major failing of LBJ's "Great Society"?

"Black Power"

24. Define / explain "Black Power" (you may have to consult other sources for this one):
25. The Watts Riots (1965):
26. Malcolm X:
27. The Black Panthers:
28. What overshadowed LBJ's efforts and motivated student protests more than any other single issue?

There were at least THREE groups other than Black Americans who were vocally advocating for their rights during the 1960s. Identify each and briefly explain at least ONE thing they wanted or did, according to Green.

- 29.
- 30.
- 31.
32. Rachel Carson / Silent Spring:
33. Betty Friedan / The Feminine Mystique:
34. "misogyny" (brief explanation / definition):

35. NOW:

36. The Warren Court (brief explanation / definition):

Identify & Briefly Explain any FIVE Supreme Court cases of the Warren Court (or the early 1970s) mentioned in this video - 37.

38.

39.

40.

41.

42. Which single year does Green (and most historians) point to as the MOST representative of everything happening at the time?

Identify and briefly explain THREE events which happened during this year (from the previous question) -

43.

44.

45.

46. According to Eric Foner, what was one POSITIVE legacy of the 1960s?

47. According to Eric Foner, what was one NEGATIVE legacy of the 1960s?

48. What does Green mean about the changes of the 1960s not being the result of "radical revolution"? Explain.

49-50. This video avoids discussing two of the things people MOST associate with the 1960s. Any guesses what?